INTEREST ON THE PUBLIC DEBT.

SECOND AUTHOR'S OF VIRGINIA.

SECOND AUTHOR'S OFFICE.

RICHMOND, June 5, 1897.

Inquiries are so often made at this oiline in relation to the payment of interest on the public debt, that it is deemed proper to make publication in this form on the subject.

Under the act of March 9, 1863, all interest due to January 1, 1867, may be funded at the option of the owner, in the mode therein prescribed. No provision has yet been made for payment of thierest on certificates issued under the per cent on account of the interest account since January.

Where the stock is registered the interest will be paid to the owner or his order, and file balance, one per cent, will stand to his credit on the books.

The interest on the coupon five per cent sterling debt, payable in London, will be paid there, and funds have already because the same of the same than a standard the same the amount due is the already and a new the same that the same than the same than the same than the same than the same that the same than the same cancelled.

The law also provides that parties who choose to do so may, after the lat of July, get certificates in the nature of coupons for interest due lat of January next, which are receivable in payment of taxes and public dues.

In the case of coupons, they will be presented here, and certificates for two per cent and coupons for she residue, one per cent, will be issued in lieu of them.

Where the stock is reg stered, the order of the owner will be sufficient; but the boads must in these cases, be presented, so that an endorsement may be made upon them that such certificates have been lased.
